

About The Laumaster Project

Privacy Statement

The Laumaster Project started to simply to see if everyone named Lowmaster was related. As the research evolved it included (or found) the Lawmaster, Laumaster, and Loumaster surnames. Today the Project exists to track people with these names and remains the primary focus of the Project. However, it is also a genealogy of the descendants of Wendel Laumeister, 1750 Immigrant to York, Pa.

No information here is uploaded to Ancestry.com or any other genealogical pay-to-play web sites. My long-term plan is to incorporate The Laumaster Project as a non-profit family association which will live on in perpetuity. Otherwise, when I die, this site and all the information contained herein will die with me. Just one big life-long hobby. (Sad for me to think about this but we all have to face it eventually.)

Your privacy is very important and respected. Information collected here is for genealogical purposes only. I retain personal information as long as necessary for the fulfillment of those purposes. For genealogical information, this may be retained indefinitely.

I do not warrant or make any representations concerning the accuracy, likely results, or reliability of the use of the data that I compile. I will protect personal information by reasonable security safeguards against loss or theft, as well as unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use or modification. Because there is information about living people here I have limited access to family members only.

I gladly accept contributions. Names (full), places, dates, media (photos, documents). I also can show in-laws although not technically part of a family tree.

Have fun! Learn a little and educate me along the way.
